

Camp Waupaca Reunion Group, NFP
Disclosers, Disclaimers and Explanations
(Revised October 2, 2026)

1. Welcome to the Camp Waupaca Reunion Group (CWRG) Webpage. The purpose of the Organization shall be to foster an appreciation of the experiences and time spent at Camp Waupaca, a private summer camp situated in the State of Wisconsin, and to maintain ties between the campers, staff, vendors, friends, and their families. The group will maintain a website, conduct reunions in various locations, and from time to time publish materials of interest to the Members. This site, created by amateurs, is designed for campers, counselors, staff, families and friends of Camp Waupaca, a private boy's summer camp in Wisconsin that operated on the shores of Lake Stratton from 1951 to 1988. Camp was created by Irving "Skipper" Kuklin and Joe Rosen in 1951. They operated the camp, with great help and advice from their wives, from 1951-1965. In 1961, Joe Rosen sold his shares of camp to Nate Greenberg. In 1966, Manny Desnet and two silent partners, Arnold Gassel and Bernard Cohen, purchased Camp Waupaca and continued its operation until 1988. It continues to operate as Camp Young Judaea but has no affiliation with any previous Camp Waupaca personnel and is not currently open to the public.
