Dear Friends:

Enclosed you will find an exciting outline of articles to be developed for our grand 50th Anniversary Edition of The Trail's End Yearbook! You are receiving this outline for one of two reasons:

1. Your name appears in the outline as a contributor, or
2. The editor feels you have some valuable insight to share with the alumni group

We encourage you to write an article of between 1,000 and 5,000 words on your recollections of camp. Look for your name within the outline – you can write about the topic for which you were chosen, a different outline topic, or any other camp topic of interest to you.

Your article is important to us. Paul Warshauer, Editor-in-chief of this undertaking, will contact you personally to assist you with writing your article. Feel free to contact Paul as well. The deadline for submissions is Monday November 20, 2000 – don't delay!

If you have photos for us, do send them along. And please check out your website. There are a lot of great photos out there already!

With Warm Regards,

Paul Warshauer, Editor-in-chief
